

Most countries allow personal effects to be imported "duty free" but there are exceptions depending on each country's respective regulations.

i.e. non holder of applicable visa in some cases may have to pay VAT, GST or customs excise taxes based on the value of the item(s) shipped.