

Some countries have strict quarantine regulations and will inspect items to ensure they are "safe" to be imported.

Vacuum cleaners, used camping gear, antique furniture, golf clubs, footwear used on farms, car tires etc are items which are often checked and may cause problems. Refer to each country's relevant customs authority for complete details and restrictions.